

Lecture summary

- Nodes store the data that we add to Elasticsearch
- A cluster is a collection of nodes
- Data is stored as documents, which are JSON objects
- Documents are grouped together with indices